

JAY'S JOURNAL

WE LAUNCHED OUR VIDEO EDITION OF JAY'S JOURNAL

Jay's Journal is now in video format on Instagram, Facebook, and YouTube! Follow our social media channels for weekly videos giving you the inside look at the goings on at the SC statehouse!

If you have any questions for me, or want to offer your support, you can leave a comment on any of the Jay's Journal videos and I will be happy to address in in a future episode!

PALMETTO FREEDOM FUND GALA WITH GLENN BECK

I had the distinct honor to introduce Glenn Beck at the Palmetto Freedom Fund's Conservative Gala this month! It was an awesome evening filled with true conservative speakers. The conservative movement is gaining ground in South Carolina and we will continue to make good on our promises, choose constituents over our party, and fight the swamp in Columbia!

JAY KILMARTIN WAS ENDORSED BY THE PROFESSIONAL FIRE FIGHTERS ASSOCIATION OF SOUTH CAROLINA

I was deeply honored to be endorsed by the Professional Fire Fighters Association of South Carolina! Our first responders should always be a priority in the state house and it is a real shame how much the RINOs and Democrats have neglected our hometown heroes.

You can watch the full endorsement video on our YouTube!

THANK YOU TO OUR VOLUNTEERS

I want to thank our amazing volunteers and donors. Our campaign is one of the few, true grass roots fueled campaigns in South Carolina, and none of our hard fought wins happen in the state house without your ongoing support!

Thank you to each and every one of you! Your time, your donations, and especially your prayers, are cherished gifts that we do not take for granted.

Thank you,
